

Dear Hiring Team at Two Barrels,

I am excited to apply for the Junior Front-End Web Developer position at Two Barrels. Your commitment to fostering growth and collaboration resonates deeply with me, and I am eager to bring my skills and passion for web development to your innovative team.

With over a year of hands-on experience in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, I have honed my ability to translate design files into responsive and visually appealing websites. My proficiency with frameworks like Bootstrap and preprocessors such as SASS has enabled me to create scalable and maintainable code, while my familiarity with version control tools like Git ensures efficient team collaboration. Additionally, I have worked on projects that required optimizing sites for various devices, enhancing user experiences across platforms.

What excites me most about this opportunity is your emphasis on teamwork and skill development. I thrive in environments where collaboration fuels creativity, and I am eager to learn from your seasoned developers while contributing to the success of your projects. My exposure to WordPress and passion for continuous improvement align seamlessly with your mission to deliver exceptional websites.

I am enthusiastic about the prospect of joining Two Barrels and contributing to your diverse portfolio of websites. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my technical skills and commitment to growth align with your team's needs. Please feel free to contact me at zidtv1209@gmail.com or +1 678 812 9662 to arrange a conversation.

Thank you for considering my application. I'm excited about the possibility of bringing my dedication and creativity to Two Barrels.

Best regards,

Jasmine Thatcher
